Maintenance Functions

This section covers the maintenance function of the terminal.
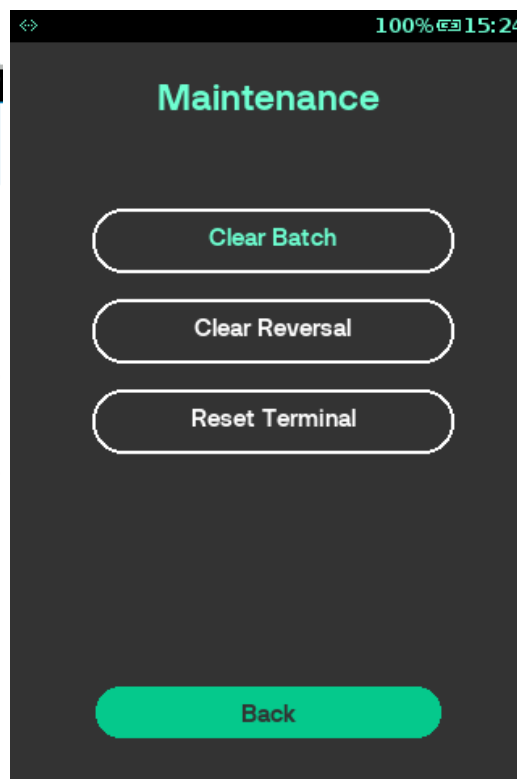

Screen Information	Rebranded Screen Information

Clear Batch

The Clear Batch allows the User to clear transactions in the batch manually without settlement.

| Step	Instruction	Screen Information	Rebranded Screen

Press key to confirm that batch is to be removed.

- If batch exists, terminal proceeds to step 2.
- If no batch exists, terminal proceeds step 3.
- If pressed, terminal goes to step 4.
- If no selection made, terminal goes to step 5.
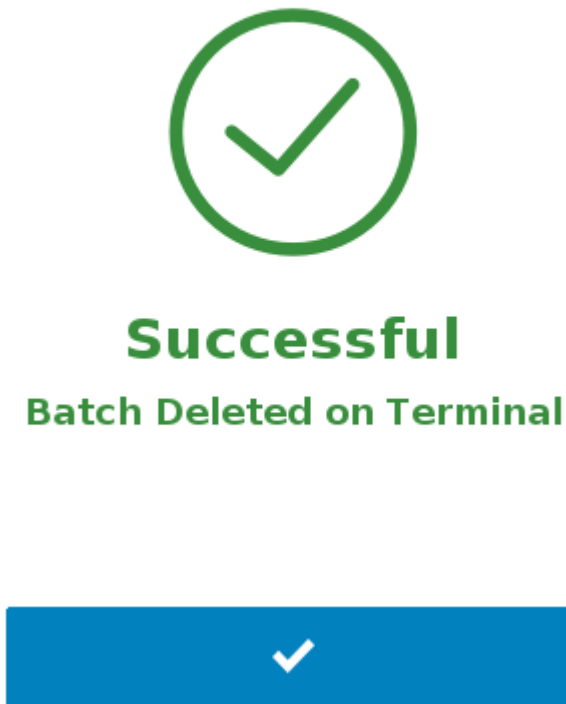

1

Clear Batch

Confirm
Do you want to Clear Batch?

2

The current batch with all transactions The current batch with all transactions stored on the terminal has been deleted.
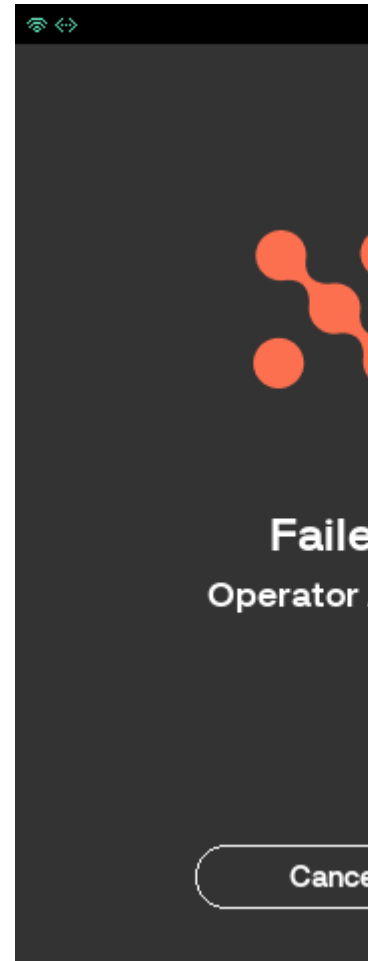

Press ⊙ key to confirm.

Clear Batch

✓

Successful

Batch Deleted on Terminal

✓

Succes

Batch Deleted

Ok

|
3	If there is no batch existing. Terminal displays the screen and proceeds to the initial Maintenance page.

Clear Batch

47% 11:01

Failed

Batch Empty

| 4 | If X key is pressed unintentionally at step 1. Terminal goes to the initial Maintenance page. | |

5	If no selection made after step 1. Terminal displays the screen and proceeds to the initial Maintenance page.

Clear Reversal

This menu item is used to clear reversal transactions from the batch.

Step	Instruction	Screen Information	Rebranded S

Press ⬤ key to confirm that reversal transactions
are to be removed.

- If reversal data exists, terminal proceeds to step 2.
- If no reversal data exists, terminal proceeds step 3.
- If ✗ pressed, terminal goes to step 4.
- If no selection made, terminal goes to step 5.

1

⬡ 100% 🔋 13:47

Clear Reversal

?

Confirm

Do you want to Clear Reversal?

✗   ✔

C
Do you want

No

Clear Reversal
2   Please wait. The receipt is printing.
Printing

Please Wait

| 3 | If there is no reversal data exists. Terminal displays the screen and proceeds to the initial Maintenance page. | |

| 4 | If X key is pressed unintentionally at step 1. Terminal goes to the initial Maintenance page. |

Clear Reversal

Failed

Operator Abort

| 5 | If no selection made after step 1. Terminal displays the screen and proceeds to the initial Maintenance page. | |

Reset Terminal

This operation allows the User to reset the terminal, so that terminal will be set to default settings. It cannot be performed if the terminal is in Training mode or the batch is not empty.

Step	Instruction	Screen Information	Rebranded S

1

During terminal reset all totals and terminal info will be erased. Press ⊙ key to confirm.

- If ✗ pressed, terminal goes to step 3.
- If no selection made, terminal goes to step 4.

Reset Terminal

?

Are you sure

All totals and terminal info will be erased.

✗ ✓

Are y

All totals and e

No

2   Please wait. Terminal is resetting and then restarting. After that the self-install process is required.
Reset Terminal

Please Wait

Resetting...

3 If X key is pressed unintentionally at step 1. Terminal goes to the initial Maintenance page.

Reset Terminal

46% 11:03

Failed

Operator Abort

| 4 | If no selection made after step 1. Terminal displays the screen and proceeds to the initial Maintenance page. |