

Add Devices

Add Devices option is used to add the device details manually on Device Management. The device details can either be uploaded for a single device or multiple devices using Bulk Import Devices option through CSV or XML file.