

Managing Rollouts

The Rollout feature is a quick and efficient method for simultaneously downloading applications/parameters to multiple devices. Rollouts can be scheduled for a single device or multiple devices for application/parameter downloads. The application/parameter/content files are first configured onto the Device Management server and then scheduled for Rollouts. The status of each scheduled download or multiple downloads can be monitored.

The software downloads are managed by software management and content management systems.