

Alerts and Notifications

The Alerts is a feature in Device Management to notify the user about an important event that occurred at the device or server level. The Alert Administration feature provides a summary of alerts. The severity of the alert is categorized as Low, Medium, and High. The severity of the alert is based on the requirement for notification.

Follow the option sequence below to view the Alerts landing page.

Verifone Central -> Device Management -> Alerts

